	7/11/2001 Shri V.G. Tamaskar, learned counsel for the petitioners. Shri Deep Kesharwani, learned Panel Lawyer, for the State/respondent. Heard. Since the appeal is already pending before the Commissioner it is submitted that instead of this Court deciding the case on merit the appellate authority be directed to decide the matter at an early date. The submission is reasonable and it can be accepted. It is submitted by Shri Tamaskar that the matter was in fact compounded and a sum of Rs.10,000/- has been paid and the same has been forfeited and the order of suspension is to be operative for a month w.e.f. 29/10/2001. In this situation, I am of the view that it will be reasonable if this petition is disposed of as follows :-

The Commissioner shall decide the appeal pending before it expeditiously and not later than 30/11/2001. Till then or until the appeal is finally decided by the Commissioner the impugned order passed by the Collector dated 29/10/2001 (Annexure - P/3) shall remain suspended so that the petitioners may be able to supply petroleum product to the public during Diwali festival.

Certified copy of this order be supplied as per rules.
